1. Approval of Minutes
3 April Meeting
(IAC-M-235)

Approved as written, except for item 6 a which was revised to read as follows:

"a. Approved further very limited dissemination of this report, as amended, to specifically selected individuals and directed JAEIC to prepare a sanitized version for more general distribution."

2. Watch Committee Report
No. 296

a. Noted.

b. General Cabell noted that the Watch Committee had held a special meeting on the previous day to report on the Arab-Israeli situation. In the discussion of this report, Admiral Layton raised the question of whether steps might be taken which could increase the usefulness of these reports to the consumer. Various problems in connection with the preparation and use of these reports were then discussed by the members. General Cabell said that in his capacity as Chairman of the Watch Committee he would take cognizance of the views expressed.

3. Third Annual Report of the Advisory Committee on Foreign Language Publications
(IAC-D-60/5, 26 March 1956)

a. The report was noted.

b. In response to a question by the AEC member, Mr. said that the Committee's efforts have been integrated with those of other interested parties in respect of the translation of certain documents of particular interest to the AEC and National Science Foundation.
